About Sree Sree Ramakrishna B.Ed. College:-

Sree Sree Ramakrishna B.Ed. College, established in 2010, is one of the oldest B.Ed. colleges in South 24 Parganas. Affiliated with the University of Calcutta from 2010 and since 2016 with Baba Saheb Ambedkar Education University (Erstwhile WBUTTEPA) and recognition from NCTE, the institution is dedicated to preparing competent, skilled, and value-oriented teachers through its NCTE-guided B.Ed. programme. It emphasizes pedagogical skills, critical thinking, and strong theoretical and practical foundations in education. Supported by experienced faculty, the college promotes innovative teaching-learning practices, seminars, workshops, and internships, with a strong focus on teaching practice in nearby schools for real classroom exposure. Alongside academics, it encourages holistic development through cultural activities, community outreach, and value-based education inspired by Sri Ramakrishna, establishing itself as a respected centre of teacher education committed to nurturing socially responsible educators.

About Dhruba Chand Halder College:-

Name of the college during establishment in the year 1965 was Dakshin Barasat College. The present name of the college is DHRUBA CHAND HALDER COLLEGE since 1968.

In the early sixties a group of young educated people came forward and took great pain to establish the college. Dr. Dhruba Chand Halder & a widow, Srimati Baruni Devi donated generously and Mr. Nanda Kishore Ghosh, the former member of C.U. senate helped to get C.U. affiliation. Nanda Kishore Ghosh was selected the president of the first G.B. of the college. The college hostel was named "Baruni Chhatrabas". Sri Sudhanshu Sekhar Gayen, a young government employee was engaged in the development of the college. He was a member of the first G.B. and became G.B. president later. The college was affiliated to Calcutta University on 23.08.1965 with permission to hold classes in the morning at the local Dakshin Barasat Shibdas Acharya High School building till the college could construct its own building. After the construction of the western part of the present main building in 1968 the college was shifted to its present site.
